

My uncle Philip was further survived by children of a deceased sister, Ada Stockman, who predeceased him. From this line my uncle was survived by a nephew, Elmer L. Stockman, who lives at 117 Frederick Avenue, Frederick, Md.

Q. Is Mr. Stockman married?

A. Yes, his wife's name is Edna. Then there was a nephew, Millard F. Stockman, who is a widower, and according to my last information, he lives at 329 Parkway Boulevard, York, Pa. There is another nephew from this line of the family, Howard A. Stockman, who lives at 222 East Seventh Street, Frederick, Md.

Q. Is Mr. Stockman married?

A. Yes, his wife's name is Helen.

Q. There was also another nephew from this branch of the family, who died before Philip I. Fisher, and he was survived by a widow, Nellie Stockman, who now lives at 442 West Patrick Street, Frederick, Md. My uncle also had a sister by the name of Mollie Stottlemeyer, who predeceased him, and she was survived by three children, namely: a nephew, Luther I. Stottlemeyer, who lives at 211 North Mulberry Street, Hagerstown, Md. ----

Q. Is Mr. Stottlemeyer married?

A. Yes, his wife is named Mary. --- A niece, Mrs. Annie M. Lefevre, who is a widow, and lives at 410 West Wilson Boulevard, Hagerstown, Maryland. There was another son, Oscar, who predeceased Philip I. Fisher, and he is survived by his widow, Emma Stottlemeyer, who lives at 518 East Franklin Street, Hagerstown, Md. My uncle had another sister, Susie Summers, who is my mother, and she died long before my uncle Philip, and I have a brother, Luther C. Remsburg, who is a nephew of my late uncle Philip, and he lives at Route 2, Middletown, Md.

Q. Is your brother married?

A. Yes, and his wife's name is Bessie.